Re: 2015 WASA Adult Tournament Bids

All of the tournaments will be bid on at the WASA Fall Council meeting in Portage, WI on Saturday September 27, 2014. The location meeting site is the Best Western Conference Center, 2701 County Road CX, Portage, WI.

Please read the forms carefully and fill them out as requested. The bids will be awarded at the Board of Directors meeting and someone must be present at the membership council meeting to present the bid. If you are unable to attend, please make arrangements for someone to be there to represent you and your organization.

If the tournaments are not awarded at the meeting, all remaining tournaments will be awarded by December 1 by the WASA State Commissioner.

If you have any questions please call me at 262-685-7984.

TOURNAMENT GUIDELINES:

1. Tournament Director is responsible for all costs associated with the tournament.
2. All forms for the tournament must be returned to the WASA Office within 10 days of the completion of the tournament.
3. All teams must be an ASA registered team for the current year and in good standing with the WASA.
4. The tournament director may offer travel money. All travel money and entry fees for teams that advance are the responsibility of the tournament director and host site.
5. Tournament Director is responsible for hiring and scheduling the umpires. The umpires may be hired by the tournament director or he may work with the WASA UIC to schedule the umpires. The tournament shall use ASA registered umpires for all games.
6. Team trophies must be purchased through the WASA. All other awards are the responsibility of the Tournament Director and host site.
7. All softballs must be approved by the WASA and are the tournament director's responsibility to purchase.
8. The host/sponsor shall use the entry fee to pay all tournament related expenses. The entry fee should cover all these expenses and travel money awarded to teams that advance to the next level of play.
9. ASA rules and roster guidelines must be followed. WASA roster guidelines will be used for all tournaments.
10. The WASA Board of Directors will award the tournament site. Bidding does not guarantee a single bid will be accepted.

I understand that if we are awarded the above tournament, we agree to abide by the conditions that are set forth in the Wisconsin ASA Code. We agree to promote and sell those products and services as authorized by the WASA Board of Directors, and to register all of our umpires and teams that participate in our softball program.
